

YOUR HISTORIES of NORTH OAKLAND

Sights, Sounds, & People from the Recent to the Deep Past

1. My 1st house was 1062 65th St - just off San Pablo. I loved all 2. my neighbors - a porter from the railroad (SP) from New Orleans - 3. showed me how to cook my leeks!
4. Another neighbor, Irma, who was always sweeping her front
5. steps, kept an eye on the whole block. One day, when I 6. was away on a business trip, she spotted someone going into
7. my house; later in the week
Irma spotted me and said
8. "Ian! Who was that little filly who was visiting your
9. place?" - I replied - "That was my mom!" 😊
10.
Ian McDonald
'76-79

Thanks for making history!

Today's Date:

Your Neighborhood:

Years in Neighborhood:

commonsarchive.net